PRESS CREDENTIALS

Two credentials are honored for admission to Energy*Solutions* Arena: Jazz season media passes and Jazz single-game media passes (good for date specified). Media members may apply for credentials by emailing credentials@utahjazz.com. All credentials are issued on a priority basis to major local, national and international media. Requests for single-game credentials must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Media with Jazz season passes or NBA passes are asked to contact the Jazz to ensure appropriate accommodations. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers must be in writing on company letterhead and must include copies of the publications (if applicable). Freelance reporters and photographers applying for credentials must provide the Jazz with story-assignment information from their editor prior to receiving credentials. International requests must be approved by the NBA International Public Relations staff in New York. Credentials are non-transferrable and do not guarantee a seat. When in Energy*Solutions* Arena, credentials must be worn and visible to security staff at all times. Autographs are not allowed during media access times. The Jazz reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time for any reason.

PRESS ENTRANCE

The Energy*Solutions* Arena press will-call and arena entrance is located off of South Temple and 300 West in the ticket lobby on the second level. No access will be allowed through public doors. Media should use stairwell #3 to access the press room.

Only members of the working media with credentials for the game are admitted to the press room. The press room serves as both a dining and working area during the regular season. The press room is equipped with telephones, wireless internet, electrical outlets and televisions for media use only. The Jazz rely on media members to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the press room at all times. Children and non-working press are not allowed in the press room.

PRESS SEATING

There are five different locations for media seating within Energy*Solutions* Arena. Please refer to the posted seating maps in the press room for seating assignments. Quote sheets will be available in the press room as soon as possible following the game.

The site is updated daily in an effort to provide the latest information on the team. The online press room is password protected and restricted to media who cover the Jazz and the NBA. To obtain access, please contact Derek Garduño in the Jazz communications department at (801) 325-2316 or dgarduno@utahjazz.com.

Both locker rooms may be opened 10 minutes, or earlier, but no later than 15 minutes after the conclusion of the game. The visiting team's head coach will generally conduct postgame interviews outside the visitor's locker room. The Jazz head coach will be available at the podium outside the Jazz locker room after the locker room has been opened to the media. Still photographers are not permitted in the locker rooms. Cell phone use by the media is prohibited inside team locker rooms. The Jazz will rely on the media to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the locker room at all times. GAIL MILLER

OWNER, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, LARRY H. MILLER GROUP OF COMPANIES

Gail Miller is the owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies and serves as chairman of the organization's advisory board. She is actively engaged in the various operations of the company, including the administration of the Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Foundation. She is the vice chair of the board of trustees of Salt Lake Community College, serves on the National Advisory Council for the University of Utah, and holds an honorary alumni award from Brigham Young University. She is also the recipient of an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Salt Lake Community College. In 2009, she was named the Salt Lake Tribune's Most Influential Sports Figure in Utah, and in 2012, the Intermountain Healthcare Research and Medical Foundation honored Miller with the Legacy of Life Award.

Gail is a native of Salt Lake City and worked for Mountain States Telephone Company until 1970, when she and her husband Larry moved their small family to Colorado to pursue fast pitch softball and a new business career in the automotive field.

In 1979, they returned to Salt Lake City to launch their own business with the purchase of Toyota of Murray, renaming it Larry H. Miller Toyota. From its inception as a single dealership operation, Larry and Gail grew their business into one of the largest privately-owned companies in the nation. Since Larry's passing in 2009, Gail continues to be involved in all areas of the company.

The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies encompasses more than 75 businesses that span 30 states. These businesses fall within two primary areas: automotive and sports/entertainment.

Automotive companies include 45 dealerships in seven states; Total Care Auto, which provides vehicle service contracts to consumers; and Prestige Financial Services, Inc., which provides consumers with financing solutions. In addition, there are several other related businesses supporting the work of these companies.

Sports and entertainment businesses include the NBA's Utah Jazz; MiLB's Triple-A Salt Lake Bees; the world-renowned Miller Motorsports Park; Fanzz sports retail apparel stores; Energy*Solutions* Arena, which seats over 19,000; KJZZ-TV and radio station 1280 The Zone; Megaplex movie theatres throughout the state of Utah; and many other related businesses.

Gail and her husband, Kim Wilson, enjoy spending time with their family, which combined includes nine children, 30 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. In addition to focusing on family and the Miller businesses, Gail finds fulfillment in promoting healthy lifestyle choices and providing civic, church, community and philanthropic service.

GREG MILLER

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, LARRY H. MILLER GROUP OF COMPANIES

As chief executive officer of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, Greg Miller oversees all automotive, sports and entertainment, and real estate divisions. These holdings include 45 automotive dealerships located throughout seven Western states; credit, insurance and advertising agencies; two professional sports teams (Utah Jazz and Salt Lake Bees); a motorsports park and an arena; an independent television station; a catering company; a sports apparel retail chain; movie theaters; and an office complex.

Miller assumed his current position in July 2008 but has worked in the family business since 1979, when his father, Larry H. Miller, purchased his first auto dealership – a Toyota store located in Murray, Utah. Miller, who was 13 at the time, began his career by sweeping floors and working in the parts department. Since then, the group has expanded into one of the nation's 200 largest privately-owned companies.

Miller has over 30 years experience working in a variety of positions that enabled him to learn the family business firsthand. During that time, he focused on areas ranging from finance to minor league hockey. His previous business endeavors include: starting Performance Automotive, which provides chemicals, printing and specialty products to auto dealerships; managing several large construction projects; and serving as general manager of Toyota, Honda and Ford dealerships.

Miller has served on the boards of several philanthropic organizations.

During his teens, Miller developed an interest and appreciation of cars that continues today. He still owns his first automobile, a 1965 Mustang fastback. Greg is a collector of Land Cruisers, and enjoys cycling and adventure travel.

Miller has three brothers and one sister, and is the oldest child of Larry H. and Gail Miller. He is married to Heidi Black Miller. They are the parents of six children (three sons and three daughters), and are the proud grandparents of one granddaughter and one grandson. Their family resides in Sandy, Utah.

RANDY RIGBY

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, UTAH JAZZ/ LARRY H. MILLER SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Starting with the NBA franchise in 1986, Randy Rigby serves as president and chief operating officer of the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group. In this capacity, Rigby sets the strategic goals for the organization and analyzes future growth opportunities. On a day-to-day basis, he leads the senior management team responsible for overseeing the Utah Jazz, Salt Lake Bees, Energy*Solutions* Arena, Miller Motorsports Park, KJZZ-TV, 1280 The Zone Radio (KZNS-AM), Fox Sports Radio 97.5 (KZNS-FM), All-Star Catering, Fanzz retail sports apparel stores and the Megaplex Theatres. He also sits on the advisory board for the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, serves as an alternate to the NBA Board of Governors, and is a member of the NBA Team Advisory Committee.

Rigby's vision and direction has resulted in the expansion of television coverage of all Utah Jazz regular season and postseason games to a six-state region, improved quality of high definition broadcasts of all Utah Jazz games, and increased exposure for multiple Utah-based sports organizations (including local high schools sports). He also helped institute the first full-time sports radio station in Utah, secured the major name rights agreements for Energy*Solutions* Arena, and has overseen significant improvements to the arena and Spring Mobile Ballpark. Rigby leads his team by exhibiting his philosophy of being passionate, caring and having fun.

Rigby previously served as senior vice president of sales, broadcasting and chief marketing officer for Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment, as well as general manager of KJZZ-TV. Rigby came to the Jazz from CFS Financial Corporation, where he worked for three years as senior vice president.

Rigby is a 1979 graduate of Brigham Young University (BYU), where he earned a degree in business management with a special emphasis in finance and marketing. He serves on various boards in the Salt Lake area for groups such as the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, Downtown Alliance, Utah Chapter of the American Lung Association, Salt Lake City Police Foundation, Junior Achievement and Rising Star Outreach, and is a member of Hale Center Theatre's board of trustees.

He and his wife, Sandra, have been married 34 years. They have four daughters, one son and eight grandchildren. The couple resides in Farmington, Utah.

KEVIN O'CONNOR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS, GENERAL MANAGER

The 2012-13 season will mark Kevin O'Connor's 14th overseeing all aspects of the Jazz's basketball operations. Previously, before the franchise hired Dennis Lindsey in the summer of 2012, he was the second-longest tenured general manager in the NBA behind only Geoff Petrie of the Sacramento Kings (18 seasons). Among some of the key moves orchestrated by O'Connor during his tenure with the Jazz are acquiring the draft picks (through trades) that led to the selections of Enes Kanter, Gordon Hayward and Deron Williams. Other notable acquisitions include trading for Derrick Favors, Al Jefferson, Marvin Williams and Mo Williams, the free-agent signings of Carlos Boozer, Matt Harpring and Mehmet Okur, and draft finds like C.J. Miles (34th overall in 2005), Paul Millsap (47th overall in 2006), Mo Williams (47th overall in 2003) and Wesley Matthews (undrafted rookie free agent in 2009).

Since O'Connor's arrival in Salt Lake City in 1999, the Jazz has compiled a record of 589-461 (.561), finishing with a .500-or-better record in 11 of 13 seasons and advancing to the playoffs nine times while winning three division titles. Along the way, O'Connor was able to successfully transition the team from the final years of the John Stockton/Karl Malone era into a perennial playoff team and 2007 Western Conference finalist despite having only three top-10 draft selections (Williams in 2005, Hayward in 2010, Kanter in 2011) since 1983.

Prior to joining the Jazz, O'Connor spent two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Philadelphia 76ers, charged with player evaluations and supervising the team's scouting department. He has also served as a scout for the Jazz, the New Jersey Nets, the Portland Trail Blazers and the Los Angeles Clippers.

In addition to his NBA experience, O'Connor served as an assistant coach to Larry Brown at UCLA in 1980 when the Bruins advanced to the NCAA championship game. He was also an assistant at Virginia Military Institute when it made an improbable run to the Elite Eight of the 1976 NCAA Tournament, and he helped coach Virginia Tech to a 22-5 record and the 1973 NIT Championship. His collegiate coaching career included assistant coaching jobs at Virginia Tech (1972-74), VMI (1974-76), the University of Colorado (1976-79) and UCLA (1979-85).

Born in the Bronx, O'Connor grew up in Staten Island, N.Y. He earned a degree in economics and business in 1969 from Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C., where he helped lead the basketball team to a 21-5 record his senior year. He then served a two-year stint in the U.S. Army from 1969-71.

O'Connor and his wife, Linda, reside in Salt Lake City. They have three children: Katie, Adam and Lindsay. Their fourth child, Brian, is deceased.

ROBERT HYDE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, PRESIDENT OF FANZZ

Bob Hyde is currently in his 29th year with the Utah Jazz, where he is responsible for all accounting, tax, and financial operations for the NBA franchise. In addition, Hyde is responsible for maintaining the financial elements of the salary cap and other aspects of the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the National Basketball Association (NBA) and the National Basketball Players Association (NBPA). Hyde is involved in player contract administration and assists with the financial aspects of player trade analysis. He has developed a unique ranking system that rates all NBA players each year, and the system is used in player personnel evaluations.

As chief financial officer for the Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group of Companies, Bob Hyde is responsible for all aspects of financial management as well as human resources, information technology and insurance management for a diverse group of companies. In addition to the Utah Jazz, the group includes KJZZ-TV; two radio stations; Energy*Solutions* Arena; the Salt Lake Bees (Triple-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim); and All-Star Catering, which provides food and beverage services to both the arena and the ballpark. The group also encompasses Megaplex Theatres (17 theatre complexes in Utah and Nevada that include over 150 screens) and Miller Motorsports Park, a world-class racing facility.

In addition to his role as CFO, Hyde is president of Fanzz, a licensed sports specialty store chain with over 90 stores nationwide. Fanzz also operates merchandise concessions at Energy*Solutions* Arena and Spring Mobile Ballpark. Hyde credits the outstanding associates he works with for his ability to oversee such a wide variety of companies, departments and projects.

GENERAL MANAGER

The 2012-13 season will mark Dennis Lindsey's first as general manager of the Utah Jazz. Lindsey comes to the Jazz after spending the past five seasons with San Antonio as the Spurs' vice president and assistant general manager. Lindsey's responsibilities with the Spurs included directing all of the team's player personnel matters, leading all draft-related efforts, managing the Spurs' professional, college and international scouting aspects and overseeing the team's analytical department, as well as handling the day-to-day management of basketball operations including salary cap management and interfacing with the NBA, coaches and player agents.

During Lindsey's tenure, San Antonio compiled a 271-123 (.688) regular season record, third-best in the NBA during that span. The Spurs won 50-plus games and advanced to the NBA Playoffs all five seasons, winning three Southwest Division titles, twice finishing with the best record in the Western Conference, and reaching two Western Conference Finals (2008, 2012).

Prior to joining the Spurs, Lindsey spent 11 seasons with the Houston Rockets, serving as the team's vice president of basketball operations and player personnel from 2002-2007. Lindsey originally joined the Rockets as video coordinator/scout in 1996, later serving as director of basketball development and then director of player personnel. Before joining the Rockets, Lindsey worked as an assistant coach at Fort Worth Southwest High School and Pensacola (FL) Junior College.

A native of Freeport, Texas, Lindsey earned his bachelor's degree from Baylor University in 1992 and a graduate degree in sports management from the U.S. Sports Academy in 1994. Lindsey played guard on the Baylor basketball team for four seasons (1988-92), teaming with future NBA players David Wesley and Micheal Williams to lead the Bears to the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

He and his wife, Becky, have four children, Jacob, Matthew, Meredith and Jessica Claire. Lindsey's father-in-law is long-time football coach F.A. Dry who served as the head coach at both Tulsa and Texas Christian.

TYRONE CORBIN, HEAD COACH

Tyrone Corbin was named head coach of the Utah Jazz on February 10, 2011, after having served as an assistant with the team since the 2004-05 season. Corbin is the seventh head coach in Jazz history and just the fourth head coach since the franchise's relocation to Utah in 1979. Prior to the 2010-11 season, Corbin ranked second in voting for the NBA's top assistant coach as selected by league general managers (behind only former Jazz assistant Phil Johnson).

With a basketball career spanning 30 years, Corbin has both played and coached under some of basketball's best. In addition to seven seasons working as an assistant under Jerry Sloan and another three seasons playing for him, Corbin also played for Rick Adelman, Cotton Fitzsimmons, Pat Riley and Lenny Wilkens over 16 seasons as a player. In fact, Corbin is tied for the second-most NBA playing experience among all current NBA head coaches, trailing only Golden State's Mark Jackson (17 seasons) by one season.

Corbin came to the Jazz after spending the 2003-04 campaign as the manager of player development for the New York Knicks. Prior to his stint with the Knicks, he spent two seasons as a player mentor for the North Charleston Lowgators of the NBA Development League.

A versatile small forward, Corbin played for nine teams during his NBA career (1985-01), including the Jazz. The Jazz acquired Corbin from Minnesota on December 16, 1991 in exchange for Thurl Bailey and a 1992 second-round pick. During his three seasons with the Jazz from 1991-94, he averaged 9.6 points and 6.2 rebounds in 233 games. Corbin appeared in a total of 1,050 games over the course of his career that included stints with San Antonio, Cleveland, Phoenix, Minnesota, Utah, Atlanta, Sacramento, Miami and Toronto.

Originally drafted by San Antonio in the second round (35th pick overall) of the 1985 NBA Draft, Corbin averaged 9.3 points and 4.8 rebounds while connecting on .457 percent of his shots in 26.2 minutes per game for his career. He also appeared in 82 playoff games, including 37 with the Jazz, averaging 8.4 points and 5.0 rebounds. He scored 11.3 points in 16 games with Utah in 1991-92 and 11.8 points in five games with the Jazz in 1992-93.

Corbin averaged 11.5 points in four years at DePaul University, including 15.8 points in his senior season. He played in 120 games for the Blue Demons, increasing his scoring average and field goal and free throw percentage in each of his four seasons. He finished seventh on DePaul's career scoring list and was a two-time honorable mention AP All-American selection, as well as an All-NIT choice in 1983, and was invited to the 1984 Olympic Trials. He also holds the distinction

A native of Columbia, S.C., Corbin was presented with the key to the city of his hometown on July 19, 2011 during a presentation at city hall. Corbin and his wife, Dante, have two children, TyJha and Tyrell. TyJha, a Clemson graduate, is currently in the health sciences graduate program at Westminster College in Salt Lake City. Tyrell, named Utah's 2010 "Mr. Basketball" by Deseret News, led Salt Lake's West High School to a state title and is currently a member of the Salt Lake Community College basketball team. Corbin graduated from DePaul University with a degree in computer science and served an internship at Merrill Lynch as a financial planner during the summer of 1997. He played alongside former NBA player Xavier Daniel at A.C. Flora High School in Columbia, and was also a former teammate of Terry Cummings at DePaul.

TEAM ACCOLADES:

- The Jazz preseason and regular season schedules are modified due to the NBA lockout, which runs from 7/1/11 until a new collective bargaining agreement is ratified on 12/8/11. As a result, teams play a revised 66-game schedule that begins Christmas Day.

The quadruple-overtime was the first in franchise history. The Jazz would fall to Atlanta, 133-139. The game was also the first in the NBA to go into quadruple overtime since 11/14/97 when the Phoenix Suns defeated the Portland Trail Blazers, 140-139.
- After starting the season 0-2, the Jazz improved its record to 9-4 over the first 13 games of the season, which included a five-game win streak.
- The Jazz had three win streaks of five or more games, including a streak of six games, which was the longest of the season (3/15-3/23).
- In a three-team race with Houston and Phoenix for the final playoff spot in the Western Conference, the Jazz finished the season 7-2, including a 100-88 victory over Phoenix (4/24) to clinch a spot in the postseason.
- The Utah Jazz finished with the eighth-best record at home in the NBA and the fifth-best record at home in the Western Conference, going 25-8 at Energy*Solution*s Arena.
- The Jazz ranked third in the NBA in both rebounds per game, with 44.1, and offensive rebounds per game, with 13.1.

- The NBA celebrates its 50th anniversary, and Karl Malone, Pete Maravich and John Stockton are honored as three of the 50 Greatest Players in NBA history.
- Utah sets new franchise records with 64 wins in a season and 38 wins at home.
- Bryon Russell sets single-season franchise records for three-point made (108) and attempted (264) (broken in 2006-07 by Mehmet Okur).
- Karl Malone tops the 25,000 career-point plateau and becomes only the fifth player in NBA history to tally 25,000 points and 10,000 rebounds.
- Malone finishes second in the league in scoring (27.4) and 11th in rebounding (9.9), becoming the first Jazzman to win MVP.
- The Jazz wins its fourth Midwest Division title, and first since 1991-92.
- Utah finishes with its 12th straight winning season and 14th straight at .500 or better.
- The Jazz also qualifies for the playoffs for the 14th straight year.
- Utah completes its first-ever playoff sweep, beating the Clippers (3-0) in the First Round.
- After reaching the Western Conference for the fourth time, the Jazz advance to the NBA Finals for the first time in franchise history thanks to a John Stockton buzzer-beating three-pointer in Game 6 at Houston. The Jazz then fell to Michael Jordan's Bulls in six games in the 1997 NBA Finals.

2003-04 NOTES:

- For the first time in 18 years, the Jazz begins the season without Karl Malone and John Stockton.
- 31 games in, leading scorer Matt Harpring is forced to undergo right knee surgery and misses the remainder of the season.
- On 2/19/04, the Jazz trades DeShawn Stevenson to Orlando for Gordan Giricek, and also send Keon Clark and Ben Handlogten to Phoenix for Tom Gugliotta.
- Utah finishes with its 19th straight winning season and 21st straight at .500 or better.
- However, for the first time since the 1983-84 season, the team fails to make the playoffs, snapping a 20-year run (third best in NBA history).
- Thus, the Jazz enters the NBA Lottery for the first time in team history.
- Andrei Kirilenko finishes the season as the team's leader in scoring, rebounding, blocks, steals and minutes played – he finishes third in the league in blocks (2.77) and fourth in steals (1.94).
- Jerry Sloan wins his 900th career game on 2/7/04, and finishes second to Hubie Brown (Memphis) for NBA Coach of the Year.

2008-09 NOTES:

- Head coach Jerry Sloan and former Jazz great John Stockton were elected to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame on 4/6/09.
- Sloan became the only coach in NBA history to win at least 1,000 games with one team with the Jazz's 104-97 win over Oklahoma City on 11/7.
- Sloan, the longest tenured coach in NBA history and the longest current head coach in major professional sports, celebrated his 20th anniversary as Jazz head coach with a 99-96 win at Minnesota on 12/9.
- Legendary Jazz broadcaster "Hot" Rod Hundley called his 3,000th Jazz game when the team, ironically enough, defeated the New Orleans Hornets on 1/7.
- Hundley, who called games for the first 35 seasons in Jazz history, dating back to the franchise's inception in New Orleans in 1974, retired following the Jazz's elimination from the 2009 playoffs.
- The Jazz advances to the playoffs for the third straight season and the 18th time in Jerry Sloan's 21 years as Jazz head coach.
- The Jazz finishes with a .500 or better record for the 25th time in the last 26 years and with a winning record for the 22nd time in the last 24 years.
- Utah lost 156 man-games overall and 148 due to injury/illness, many to key players (45 games for Carlos Boozer, 15 for Andrei Kirilenko, 14 apiece for Deron Williams and Matt Harpring) that forced the Jazz to use 20 different starting lineups.
- The Jazz did not have its projected starting lineup of Miles, Boozer, Okur, Brewer, Williams until Game 57 (2/23/09 vs. Atlanta).
- The Jazz wins 12 games in a row from 2/11 - 3/10, marking the fourth-longest winning streak in franchise history.
- The team finished the season leading the league in assists (24.7) and steals (8.77), ranking third in field goal percentage (.475) and seventh in scoring (103.6).
- Deron Williams averaged career highs of 19.4 points and 10.7 assists per game (ranking second in the NBA behind Chris Paul).
- Williams had five games in a row with 30+ points and shooting at least 50 percent shooting (1/31-2/11), the first time the feat was reached by an NBA point guard since Pete Maravich did it with the New Orleans Jazz in 1976. The last player overall to do so was LeBron James in 2007; the last guard was Michael Jordan in 1996 and the last Jazzman to do it was Karl Malone in 1995.
- Paul Millsap, filling in for injured Carlos Boozer, posted a 19-game double-double streak, which was the longest of the NBA season and most since Kevin Garnett had 33 in a row in 2006. The streak was the most by a Jazzman since John Stockton had 25 in 1991.

- Utah finished below .500 for only the second time in the last 28 years (2004-05), and the fourth time in that span the Jazz missed the playoffs.
- The Jazz missed the playoffs for the first time since 2006.
- The Jazz started the season 24-11, but finished 15-32 thereafter.
- On 2/10/11, head coach Jerry Sloan and lead assistant Phil Johnson announced their resignations and Tyrone Corbin was named the seventh head coach in Jazz history (only the fourth since the team moved to Utah in 1979).
- On 2/23/11, the Jazz traded All-Star guard Deron Williams to New Jersey in exchange for guard Devin Harris, rookie forward Derrick Favors, and two future first-round picks.
- The Jazz finished 13-3 for the month of November, the second-best November winning percentage in franchise history (11-2, .846 in 1996-97). Only twice had the Jazz ever won more than the 13 games in a month (15-2 in March 1998 and 14-1 in March 2000).
- The Jazz swept a four-game East Coast trip from 11/9-11/13/10, overcoming double-digit deficits to win each game – at Miami (trailed by 22), Orlando (18), Atlanta (11) and Charlotte (/19). It marked the second straight year the Jazz swept a four-game road trip (2/16-2/21/10), which prior to last season the team hadn't done since 1998-99.
- The Jazz became the first team in the shot clock era to win three consecutive games after trailing by at least 10 points at the half (11/6-11/10/10).
- On the season, the Jazz overcame double-digit deficits to win 15 times, overcoming 15+ point deficits on seven occasions.
- Prior to being traded, Deron Williams was selected as an NBA All-Star for the second straight season, becoming the sixth player in franchise history to be chosen multiple times (Boozer, Dantley, K. Malone, Maravich, Stockton).
- Utah finished the season fifth in the league in assists (23.4) and third in blocks (5.9).
- Al Jefferson ranked eighth in NBA in rebounding (9.7) and ninth in blocks (1.87), and Paul Millsap ranked 10th in field goal percentage (.531).
- Jefferson was the only Jazzman to appear in all 82 games (all starts) and led the Jazz's season-ending roster in scoring (18.6), rebounding (9.7), blocked shots (1.87) and double-doubles (37).

2011-12 NOTES:

- The Jazz preseason and regular season schedules are modified due to the NBA lockout, which runs from 7/1/11 until a new collective bargaining agreement is ratified on 12/8/11. As a result, teams play a revised 66-game schedule that begins Christmas Day.
- The Jazz finished the season eighth in the Western Conference and advanced to the playoffs for the fifth time in six years, and for the 25th time in 29 years.
- Utah had a .500-or-better record for the 27th time in the last 29 years, and a winning record for the 24th time in 27 years.
- The Jazz closed the season 7-2 to pass both Houston and Phoenix in the race for the final playoff spot. Utah clinched with a 100-88 win over Phoenix (4/24) in the next-to-last game of the season.
- The Jazz had three win streaks of five or more games, including a streak of six games, which was longest of the season (3/15-3/23).
- The Jazz played seven overtime games (4-3), including contests that went to double-OT (vs. TOR 1/25), triple-OT (vs. DAL 4/16) and quadruple-OT (at ATL 3/25), the longest game in franchise history. The Atlanta game was the first 4-OT NBA game since 11/14/97 (Phoenix-Portland).
- The Jazz ranked third in the NBA in rebounds per game (44.1) and offensive rebounds (13.1), and fourth in scoring (99.7) and blocks (5.8).
- Jeremy Evans was crowned champion of the 2012 NBA Slam Dunk Contest on 2/25 at NBA All Star Weekend in Orlando. Evans was the first Jazz player to win an NBA dunk contest.
- Second-year players Gordon Hayward and Derrick Favors were selected to participate in the 2012 Rising Stars Challenge during All-Star Weekend (2/24), where they scored 14 points apiece.
- Paul Millsap ranked fourth in the NBA in steals per game, with an average of 1.84.
- Al Jefferson led the Jazz in points (19.2), rebounds (9.6) and blocks (1.7) while registering a team-high 31 double-doubles.
- Jefferson was named the Western Conference Player of the Week for games played from April 16 to April 23. During that stretch he led the Jazz to a 3-0 record and averaged 20.0 points, a league-high 15.3 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.0 blocks.

HISTORY OF THE JAZZ NAME AND LOGO

On March 7, 1974, New Orleans became the 18th member of the NBA as a nine-man group headed by Fred Rosenfeld and Sam Battistone paid $6.15 million for the expansion franchise. Then on May 3, 1974, Pete Maravich was acquired by trade from Atlanta, becoming the first player in franchise history.

That spring, a contest was held to name the expansion team. Of the more than 6,500 names submitted, eight semi-finalists emerged: Jazz, Dukes, Crescents, Pilots, Cajuns, Blues, Deltas, and Knights.

After much deliberation, team officials announced that the new team name would be the New Orleans Jazz on June 7, 1974.

Three contestants had entered the Jazz name with the same postmark date, so team officials had Miss New Orleans 1974, Kay Johnson, choose a winner out of a hopper. That winner was Steve Brown, a 27-year old broker and transplant New Yorker.

Brown, a self-proclaimed Jazz freak who had once played in a league with Julius Irving, said, "I grew up on Knickerbocker basketball, but this is my team now." He received two Jazz season tickets and a trip to the 1975 NBA All-Star Game in Phoenix.

As the undisputed "Jazz capital of the world", the city embraced the new name. And, for the second time, Jazz had been born in New Orleans. To convey a distinct Mardi Gras theme, purple gold, and green colors were used and the logo featured the 'J' as an eighth note. The team colors were actually selected prior to the name.

"Jazz is one of those things for which New Orleans is nationally famous and locally proud," owner Fred Rosenfeld said. "It is a great art form which belongs to New Orleans and its rich history."

"As for the tradition of Mardi Gras, the three colors are emblematic of the following: purple for justice, green for faith, gold for power."

The Jazz remained in New Orleans for five years (1974-79) before ownership decided to move the team to Salt Lake City following the 1978-79 season. Despite no history of Jazz music in Utah, the name was kept.

Although many at the time had reservations about Utah's ability to successfully support an NBA team, Utah Jazz fans became some of the most loyal fans in the league. To this day, saxophones, Cajun food, and Mardi Gras beads may be hard to come by in Salt Lake City, but Jazz is definitely in the air.

QUICK JAZZ FACTS:

- The Jazz name was selected because of its definition in the dictionary: "collective improvisation."
- The source of the word "Jazz" is not clear, but the word is often regarded as being of African or Creole origin.

LARRY H. MILLER

NO. 9 BANNER RAISED AND COURT DEDICATED IN HIS HONOR ON APRIL 14, 2010

I'VE ALWAYS SAID TO OUR GUYS 'I'LL NEVER ASK YOU TO WIN, BUT I WILL ASK YOU TO GIVE US EVERYTHING YOU'VE GOT.' "

A man who truly loved Utah, Larry H. Miller was a well-known entrepreneur, community advocate and humanitarian, who owned the Utah Jazz for 24 years prior to his death in February 2009 ... Miller purchased 50-percent interest in the Jazz on April 11, 1985 from then-owner Sam Battistone, then bought the remaining half on June 16, 1986 ... Under his ownership, the franchise grew considerably and became a winner both on and off the court ... Miller's success as owner of the Jazz was just one chapter in his amazing saga of business achievement and community involvement ... His unwavering personal commitment to professional sports in Salt Lake City created the foundation for a strong franchise in one of the league's smallest markets and was rewarded with achievements such as consecutive trips to the NBA Finals in 1997 and 1998 and hosting the NBA All-Star game in 1993 ... The founding owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, whose primary business is a network of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... His career in the automotive industry grew from roots in the parts business in both Salt Lake City and Denver before he purchased his first dealership in 1979 ... The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies began with the Larry H. Miller Toyota store in Murray, Utah on May 1, 1979 ... Through the years, Miller amassed more than 80 businesses and properties in the western United States, most notably the Jazz, Energy*Solutions* Arena, the Salt Lake Bees (AAA-affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Miller Motorsports Park, Megaplex Theatres, and dozens of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... Miller also developed vast real estate holdings including commercial and agricultural properties ... In March 2003, Miller opened the Zions Bank Basketball Center, the Jazz's premier basketball training and practice facility which features two full-size NBA courts, totaling 22,200 square feet of court ... His most visible contribution to Salt Lake City was his privately owned Energy*Solutions* Arena, which under his supervision, was completed in 1991 in a then-record 15 months and 24 days, and has served as home for the Jazz for the past 19 seasons ... He received awards from Sports Illustrated, and the American Import Auto Dealers Association for his work in the automobile industry ... In 1992, he was honored by the International Softball Congress when he was inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame as one of the top pitchers in the country ... He was also awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the University of Utah, Weber State University, Salt Lake Community College and Utah Valley State College ... He was named Utah's 1997 Master Entrepreneur of the Year and received numerous other honors from business, civic and non-profit organizations ... He coined the phrase "Go about doing good until there is too much good in the world" ... Miller and his wife Gail provide close to 300 college scholarships each year ... Larry H. Miller Charities, a foundation funded by monthly contributions from his businesses, fundraising events in the community, and personal donations from employees, has donated millions of dollars to communities in which the Larry H. Miller Group does business ... Larry and Gail also donated millions of dollars to Utah-based colleges and universities for campus improvements such as the state-of-the-art softball and baseball complexes at BYU ... The Larry H. Miller Campus of the Salt Lake Community College (SLCC), was completed in fall 2001 and includes the Larry H. Miller Entrepreneurship Training Center and The Larry and Gail Miller Public Safety Education & Training Center ... Born in Salt Lake City in 1944, Miller grew up modestly in the Capitol Hill area before becoming one of Utah's most successful entrepreneurs and business leaders ... He died from complications due to type 2 diabetes at the age of 64 on February 20, 2009 ... He left behind a profound professional and personal legacy, created a significant and lasting impact on the communities in which he did business, and the more than 7,000 individuals he employed ... Despite all of his success, Miller always maintained that his greatest accomplishment is the family that survives him: his wife, Karen Gail Saxton Miller, their four sons and one daughter, grandchildren, and great grandchildren ... On April 14, 2010, Miller was honored by the Larry H. Miller Corporation as its employees participated in a day of service, his softball No. 9 was raised to the rafters of Energy*Solutions* Arena, and the basketball court was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court at Energy*Solutions* Arena.

The Reno Bighorns are the official D-League affiliate of the Utah Jazz. Founded in 2008 and based in Reno, Nev., the team is owned by Bighorns Basketball, LLC, a local ownership group led by Herb Santos, Jr., Stephen Adams and Jeffrey Adams. The Bighorns are coached by former NBA big man Paul Mokeski and play their home games at the Reno Events Center. Their team colors are green, blue and tan and their namesake is the Desert Bighorn Sheep, the state animal of Nevada. In addition to the Jazz, the Bighorns are also affiliated with the Memphis Grizzlies and Sacramento Kings.

TEAM INFO

The Utah Jazz has a strong tradition of giving back to local communities. Each year the team implements a variety of outreach events and programs that benefit others.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Every November a traditional Thanksgiving dinner is served at Energy*Solutions* Arena to homeless and low-income individuals and families. The Utah Jazz, Energy*Solutions* Arena, Salt Lake City Mission and Utah Food Services partner to provide this holiday meal. Last season, more than 3,600 dinners were served.

CHRISTMAS HOSPITAL VISITS

Jazz players, coaches, dancers and the Jazz Bear visit Shriners Hospital for Children – Salt Lake City and Primary Children's Medical Center each December to comfort children who are unable to be home during the holidays. A Jazz entourage moves from room to room, visiting with each child and leaving a small gift. These Christmas visits have been a Jazz tradition for over 25 years.

BE A TEAM PLAYER – READ

Be a Team Player – Read is a highly successful program aimed at increasing literacy skills in children. Over a four-week period of time, local elementary schools log students' out-of-school reading time. The top 10 schools are rewarded with a Jazz player visit. Last year, more than 24,000 students read a combined total of over 18 million minutes.

LEAPIN' LEANERS & LOW TOPS

Leapin' Leaners & Low Tops is a fundraiser that allows fans to interact with Jazz players while raising money for charity. Proceeds benefit Larry H. Miller Charities, a nonprofit foundation that focuses on women's and children's issues in the areas of health and education. Fans are encouraged to wear formal attire and gym shoes to Energy*Solutions* Arena, where they have dinner, play basketball on the Jazz court, get autographs and photos with their favorite players, and participate in a silent and live auction.

BASKETBALL COURTS IN PARKS

The Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities continue to collaborate with local cities on the construction of public outdoor basketball courts in Utah. Last season, the Jazz opened a new court in Saratoga Springs. To date, nine courts have been built along the Wasatch Front.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY SCHOLARSHIP

Each January, the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities award a scholarship to an outstanding student who is recognized for his or her accomplishments. The scholarship is presented at an NAACP luncheon held in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

READING AND LEARNING CENTERS

The Jazz has spearheaded the creation of reading and learning centers at three local agencies that serve underprivileged youth in the Salt Lake area. By remodeling and refitting rooms with items such as books, computers and educational tools, these facilities now offer children enhanced learning opportunities.

HIT THE STREETS

Jazz players go into the community each preseason to "hit the streets" and interact face-to-face with fans. Activities vary every year and have included riding public transportation, attending high school football games, visiting local police and fire stations, posing for photographs, signing autographs and distributing free game tickets.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

The Utah Jazz collaborates with the Deseret News to produce an annual educational news section that addresses topics relevant to youth. Teachers can request copies of the supplement for use in the classroom. Last season, over 400,000 copies were distributed to teachers and newspaper subscribers.

WHEELIN' JAZZ

The Utah Jazz continues its support of the Wheelin' Jazz, a Utah-based team that belongs to the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA). The wheelchair team has participated in halftime demonstrations that highlight the sport, and team jerseys have been donated by the Utah Jazz. Last year, Jazz coaches conducted a basketball clinic for the Jr. Wheelin' Jazz, which is a member of the NWBA Junior Division.

TOYS FOR TOTS

The Jazz franchise has a long-standing tradition of helping the U.S. Marines collect toys for underserved children during the holidays. Jazz fans participate in a Toys for Tots drive at two home games each December. This year's drive is presented by American Family Insurance.

TICKET DONATIONS

In recent years, several Jazz players have purchased groups of tickets and donated them back to the community. The tickets have allowed local youth, especially those from low-income families, to attend Jazz games free of charge. Since 2006, over 23,000 tickets have been contributed.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

For many years, the team has supported Boy Scouts of America by honoring scouts who generate the largest number of ticket sales to Scout O' Rama, an annual fundraising event. Top sellers from neighboring districts receive tickets to a Jazz game, where they are publicly recognized.

GOING GREEN

In collaboration with the National Basketball Association and key sponsors such as Questar Gas, the Larry H. Miller Dealerships, Exergy Development Group and Salt Lake City, the Jazz focuses on responsible use of energy resources. Designated home games during the 2012-13 season will be devoted to educating consumers and raising environmental awareness within the community. Energy-saving measures have been implemented at Energy*Solutions* Arena and "going green" continues to be a team priority.

BEAR HUGS FOR KIDS

Bear Hugs for Kids, an outreach effort that was initiated by the Jazz Bear, has benefited many children over the years. The program includes an annual outing where volunteers take underserved youth Christmas shopping.

JR. JAZZ YOUTH BASKETBALL

Jr. Jazz began in 1983 and is the longest-running youth basketball league in the NBA. Between 50,000 to 60,000 youth from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona and Montana participate in the program annually. Jr. Jazz emphasizes sportsmanship, teamwork and fundamental basketball skills. Each Jazz player participates in one to two Jr. Jazz clinics per year, where they speak to youth and conduct basketball clinics.

CHARITABLE AUCTIONS

Silent auctions are held at designated home games throughout the season to generate funds for charity. Fans bid on unique autographed memorabilia, with proceeds benefiting local charitable groups via Larry H. Miller Charities. This season, the auctions will be presented by American Family Insurance.

COACHES FOR KIDS

Jazz coaches and trainers provide hundreds of local children the opportunity to attend Jazz basketball games through the NBA Coaches for Kids program. Through the initiative, NBA coaches, assistant coaches, general managers and athletic trainers contribute to Boys & Girls Clubs of America, enabling thousands of youth across the nation to attend NBA games.

NBA CARES

Each fall, the Jazz sponsors a community service activity as part of the league's social responsibility initiative, NBA Cares. At past events, players have interacted with underserved children at educational sites, visited pediatric hospitals, participated in a food drive and helped underprivileged youth receive vision screening. This season, the team is collaborating with the U.S. Dream Academy to provide a free basketball clinic. The Dream Academy is an after-school program that focuses on helping children whose parents or family members are incarcerated.

JAZZ FIT

The Utah Jazz supports an exciting health initiative, Jazz Fit, which focuses on increasing fitness and wellness. Fans can access an interactive website, www.utahjazzfit.com, where Jazz coaches, trainers, players and the Nu Skin Jazz Dancers provide fitness and nutrition information. Produced in conjunction with NBA Fit, the program is sponsored by Associated Foods, Fresh Market stores, ICON Health & Fitness, Moreton & Company, and others.

COMMUNITY BASKETBALL CLINICS

DAY OF SERVICE

For the past three years, the Utah Jazz has paid tribute to its late owner, Larry H. Miller, by designating a day to honor his many contributions to the community. Jazz staff joined other Miller-company employees and participated in service projects that benefited local Boys & Girls Clubs and other community service agencies.

Larry H. Miller Charities

Based in over 30 states, the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies encompasses more than 80 businesses and properties that primarily fall within the sports, entertainment, retail, financial, real estate and automotive industries. Larry H. Miller Charities (LHM Charities) is a nonprofit foundation formed in 1995 that functions as the charitable arm of these many companies. Assistance from the foundation is directed toward groups and programs based in the same communities where Miller businesses are located.

LHM Charities focuses its donations on issues that affect women and children, with an emphasis on health and education. A board of 12 trustees regularly meets to review requests and proposals that are submitted. Donations are distributed to qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit status organizations.

Funding for LHM Charities is generated through monthly contributions from Larry H. Miller companies and personal donations from employees. Funds are also raised through contributions from the general public. Each year, Utah Jazz players actively assist at a major fundraising event.

Since its inception in 1995, Larry H. Miller Charities has assisted a multitude of organizations and worthy causes. This past year, donations were made to groups such as: Utahns Against Hunger, Community Health Connect, Camp Hobé, Salt Lake Donated Dental Services, Youth Impact, Utah Foundation for the Blind and Visually Impaired, The Happy Factory, Ability Found, Family Support Centers and many schools.

LHM Charities has collaborated with the Utah Jazz and NBA on numerous community projects.

UTAH JAZZ BEAR

Now entering his 19th season, Bear, the loveable and playful mascot of the Utah Jazz, has entertained millions of fans at more than 780 Jazz home games since his introduction on November 4, 1994. Although he is known for his on-court antics at Jazz games like sledding down the stairs at the Energy*Solutions* Arena, rappelling from the arena rafters,teasing referees, high-fiving fans, shooting silly string and giving hugs to children, it's his many hours of service to the community that makes Bear the incredible mascot he is. His attitude and energy bring laughter to everyone.

In addition to Jazz games he has enriched Utah by donating time to schools, community centers and hospitals. Each year, Bear entertains and instructs gradeschool students through assemblies such as "Fun to be Fit" and "Read to Achieve," which strive to teach students how to make informed and intelligent life choices. For the past 18 years Bear has appeared at numerous events for organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters, Primary Children's Hospital, Special Olympics, D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), Toys for Tots and Race for the Cure. Bear also hosts the "Bear Hugs for Kids" program each year, taking 500 underprivileged youth on a shopping spree to purchase Christmas presents for themselves and their families. He has received dozens of service awards for his charitable work and contributions.

For his 10th birthday on June 9, 2004, Utah State Governor Olene Walker declared the day as "Jazz Bear Day" in recognition of his countless hours of community and public service and his standing as an important citizen of Utah. Bear has also received the NBA Mascot Leadership Award each of the last two years, and was selected by his peers as the NBA Mascot of the Year in 2006 and 2008. Bear was again honored when Utah Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. declared August, 10, 2006, "Jazz Bear Day" and announced Bear's selection to the national Mascot Hall of Fame. Bear's induction into the second class of the Mascot Hall of Fame was on August 15, 2006 in Philadelphia. The highest honor bestowed upon mascots, the mission of the Hall of Fame is to recognize great mascot performers, performance and programs that have inspired tradition and positively affected communities.
